To whom it may concern:

I've known Suzie Choobak since 2004. I brought my daughter, Anna Haubrich, to her day care when she was 3 months old and she has been there ever since. Suzie has shown Anna a loving and nurturing environment. Leaving a tiny baby in the care of a stranger can be incredibly overwhelming; however, Suzie welcomed Anna and our family into her home. She made my husband and I immediately at ease and Anna has always been happy there. Anna is now in her 4th year with Suzie's Angels and she has blossomed into a smart, funny, creative and independent little girl. We owe that to Suzie and her many years of experience caring for children. Anna is learning to read with Suzie and her social skills are excellent.

We are so lucky to have found Suzie and recommend her day care to everyone!
